

ADDENDUM

This is to inform all bidders interested in the tender for Supply and delivery of Bottled Mineral drink water that since the tender is reserved for women which is a special group and in compliance with section 61(5) of the PPAD act 2015, you will not be required to submit any tender security instead you are expected to complete the tender security declaration form provided in the tender document.

You are further advised that the tender Security declaration form has been provided in the revised tender document uploaded for your consideration.

Note that other terms and conditions as indicated earlier remains unchanged.